NOTICE

This is for information to all concerned that the challenges to answer keys of CPGEE2022 received in response to our notice dated 09/08/2022 have been examined by subject experts. The challenges found valid have been accepted and the answer keys have been suitably updated. The updated answer keys will be made available through the user accounts as before. All challengers will be individually intimated about the outcomes of their challenges. The OMR sheets of CPGEE 2022 are being evaluated with the revised answer keys and no more challenges will be accepted. The results of CPGEE2022 will be declared by the Academic Registrar shortly.
